

WHEREAS, International Education is a universal component for promoting international understanding; and,

WHEREAS, It is necessary to develop in people a sense of living now in a global community in which they recognize their own culture as one among many cultures each with its own validity and virtue; and,

WHEREAS, The American Association of Colleges for Teacher Education, the South Dakota Association of Colleges for Teacher Education and the School of Education of the University of South Dakota, having as a foremost objective the promotion of international understanding, will jointly sponsor its Conference in International Education on April 4, 1975; and,

WHEREAS, The Conference in International Education is designed to give students, faculty and participants a clearer perspective recognizing that education for world understanding and cooperation is an essential ingredient for life in the future as well as for the present:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, RICHARD F. KNEIP, Governor of the State of South Dakota, in recognition of the Conference in International Education and in order to encourage international understanding, do hereby proclaim April 4, 1975 as:

INTERNATIONAL EDUCATION DAY

in the State of South Dakota, and urge all individuals to join in the observance and share the joy of diversity and the enrichment of life that comes from knowing others.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand
and affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota,
in Pierre, the Capital City, this 20th day of March, in the Year of Our Lord, Nine-
